Progress in Post-Season

Kutztown University football is headed back to the NCAA Division II Football Championship tournament.

The Golden Bears received the No. 2 seed Super Region One and will host No. 7 seed Tiffin University (Ohio) in a First Round game at Andre Reed Stadium on Saturday, November 23, at 12:05 p.m.

Kutztown, ranked 13th in the AFCA Division II Poll, started 10-0 for the first time in program history before falling to eighth-ranked Slippery Rock, 37-35, in the PSAC Championship game on November 16. Sixth-year head coach Jim Clements has the Maroon and Gold back in the NCAA playoffs for the second straight year, and 2019 marks the Golden Bears' fourth appearance all-time (2010, 2011, 2018, 2019). KU was defeated by Hillsdale, 40-26, in last year's opening round.

The fourth-ranked and fifth-seeded Kutztown University Field Hockey team enjoyed a 1-0 victory (3-1 penalty shootout) over fifth-ranked and fourth-seeded Southern New Hampshire University, Saturday afternoon in an NCAA First Round game in Manchester, N.H.

The Golden Bears (15-6 overall) won just their second NCAA postseason game in program history, first since 1988. They also won their 15th game of the year; the most by a KU team in a single-season since 2007. Kutztown will now advance to the Final Four and play an NCAA semifinal game against top-seed West Chester on Friday, November 22, at 2 p.m. at Millersville University. The other national semifinal is second-seed Saint Anselm and third-seed East Stroudsburg at 5 p.m.
